MEET OUR STAFF

CHEF DAVID BEN-HAMU, Executive Chef was born and raised in Netivot, Israel. He received some of his first training from his grandmother who was a skilled cook and had to provide meals for a very large household. Although he is formally trained, his experience is what he built his career on. Chef David is well-versed in American classic fare, Israeli style foods (the whole gamut), a wide range of Chinese, some Indian dishes, and Mexican/Spanish style. Chef David will be preparing many varieties of beef, chicken, veal, fish, appetizers and much more. Although he runs a very tight ship, he does like to introduce some humor into the work environment. It raises the moral of the staff and helps to bring the best out of everyone.

CHEF CHANI GOLD, Dairy Chef has spent years honing her craft in the food industry. She operates her own catering company and has experience cooking in restaurants and running institutional kitchens. From an early start working with healing diets, she developed an affinity for plant-based cooking. Limitations in the types of food people could incorporate into their diets necessitated an understanding of flavoring techniques used in a variety of cuisines. This knowledge has proven invaluable in her over 20-year career as a kosher chef, especially given the restrictions inherent in a Passover kitchen. Most important to Chani is balancing the goal of intensifying flavor with a philosophy of using less processed ingredients to enhance the taste and presentation of her food. With her creativity and the ever-increasing array of Pesach foods, Chani is sure to WOW our guests with a whole new variety of choices.

RABBI SHLOMO HYMAN, Day camp Director has worked in the field of education for 32 years and has been with the Pesach Time Tours family for the past 14 years. In addition to Smicha, he has a master's degree in Jewish Education. Rabbi Hyman has 23 years experience working in summer camps in both supervisory and administrative positions. Rabbi Hyman lives in Englewood, New Jersey, where he lives with his wife Freidi and their five children. Rabbi Hyman runs a fun-filled and exciting program. Day campers will have their days filled with numerous activities, make friends and gather memories that will last a lifetime. Among just a few of the highlights are Rabbi Hyman's spellbinding story time, special guest entertainers, and the "Acharon Shel Pesach" camper performances. With all of the exciting and varied activities your child will never be bored!
